The Legislative Ethics Committee will hold a public hearing on Wednesday, January 21, 1998, at 3:00 p.m. in Room 304, LOB on a proposed Advisory Opinion. The proposed Advisory Opinion is printed below in its entirety.

Senator Richard L. Russman

PROPOSED

ADVISORY OPINION

The Legislative Ethics Committee has received and reviewed a request for an Advisory Opinion regarding the application of the conflict of interest disclosure procedure of the Guidelines as it may pertain to members of the General Court who own land subject to current use assessment. The Committee was asked whether a legislator who has filed a general disclosure of ownership of land in current use assessment at the beginning of a legislative session must also file a Declaration of Intent Form for each individual bill the legislator votes upon which relates to the current use assessment and tax system.

The Committee has addressed the issue of current use land ownership previously. In Advisory Opinion 1996-1, the Committee ruled:

The current use tax system, unlike a tax of general application, is available and applies to a limited number of landowners, and accordingly, constitutes a financial interest, and therefore a potential conflict of interest, with respect to any official activity pertaining to the current use tax system. Therefore, a legislator who owns (or whose spouse owns) land in current use must file a conflict of interest disclosure form with the clerk with respect to any official activity which may affect the financial benefits or burdens of such ownership. (emphasis added)

Ethics Guidelines Section 2, VI defines "official activities" as:

...the conduct of activities which relate to official responsibilities including the introduction of legislation, testifying before any legislative committee or state agency, voting in committee or in house or senate session or otherwise participating in, influencing, or attempting to influence any decision of the legislature, county delegation or any state agency.

Ethics Guidelines Section 5, Conflict of Interest Procedure, requires a legislator to file a Declaration of Intent Form with the clerk of the member's respective body "within 24 hours" of the time of the legislator's participation in any official activity in which the legislator has a potential conflict of interest. Although the Ethics Committee is currently considering a process which would allow legislators to file a general disclosure form at the beginning of the session, that process has not yet been adopted by the House and the Senate.

Accordingly, the Committee concluded that the Ethics Guidelines require a legislator with land in current use to file a Declaration of Intent Form for each bill for which the legislator has a potential conflict of interest.
