2001-1419s

AMENDED ANALYSIS

This bill makes adjustments to the maximum benefit amounts payable under the unemployment compensation law effective July 1, 2001 and June 30, 2002; increases certain late filing fees; eliminates certain required annual audits of funds administered under RSA 282-A; and changes certain timing requirements under the unemployment compensation law.

This bill also repeals the prospective repeal of RSA 282-A:87, IV relative to designating a portion of employer contributions for unemployment compensation to the commissioner's contingent fund. It establishes a new dedicated fund to be used to fund the job training program for economic growth using a portion of the employers' administrative contribution to the unemployment compensation trust fund. Any moneys in the training fund which are not expended within 2 years from the end of the fiscal year in which they accrue will lapse into the contingent fund of the commissioner of employment security.

This bill also changes the membership of the grant review committee of the job training program for economic growth, adds new eligibility requirements for training grants, raises the amount available for administering the program, and changes the grant performance reporting procedure.
