SENATE JOURNAL 12

May 12, 2022

The Senate reconvened at 10:00 a.m., a quorum being present.

The Reverend Father Stephen Lawson, Chaplain to the Senate, offered the following prayer:

Thank you for having me again, it's great to be with you once again. I told the Senate President that if I'm invited back a third time, I'll warrant a retainer. And he quickly said this will be your last time coming.

Let us bow our heads in prayer.

Almighty God of love and mercy, today we pray for the understanding to always seek your wisdom and justice. It is through you that the Senators of this body work to bring justice and prosperity to this great state. Give both courage and discernment to the staff and Senators of this body as they work together on this busy day. We pray that your spirit may come down upon us, that the people gathered here this morning will be guided by your charity, may be granted the gifts of humility and patience with one another. We pray in a special way for the family and friends of these Senators and staff members, that those who are sick may be healed and for those who have died that we may one day join them at the gates of paradise. Almighty God of power, continue to bless the peoples of the great state of New Hampshire. Amen.
