Senate Republicans will continue to fight to Protect Women and Young Girls

CONCORD, NH – Senate Vice-Chairman of Judiciary Daryl Abbas (R-Salem) released the following statement after SB 552, permitting classification of individuals based on biological sex under certain limited circumstances:

“This is another commonsense measure to protect the privacy and safety girls and women deserve in their own designated spaces. We want to ensure fair competitions and opportunities in women’s sports. These are protections that Granite Staters strongly support and Senate Republicans will continue to fight for these reasonable standards that shouldn’t be up for debate.”
